Top Resa 2016 Trade Fair: Groupe ADP presents its new services

From 20 to 23 September, Groupe ADP will be taking part in the 2016 IFTM Top Resa, the world's leading trade fair for tourism professionals.

Attending the IFTM Top Resa Trade Fair for the first time under its new identity, Groupe ADP will be presenting, on behalf of Paris Aéroport, its full range of services available to airlines, travel agents and tour operators as well as a number of new technological and digital services on offer to their clients:

- event reception services for professionals: meetings, conventions, seminars, exhibitions, personalised welcome services, and much more — a collection of services tailor-made for event organisers
- the latest innovations in passenger services: the new "responsive design" website, changes to the My Airport app, presentation of the new city guide available on the Paris Worldwide app, airport information and navigation terminals, the indoor geolocation system, a valet parking trial and other new services including "Find my passport" and a "Digital reading zone"
- shopping "A la parisienne" and convenience services: shops, restaurants, luggage services, Bus Direct, Résa Parking and My Paris Aéroport, the new loyalty programme.

Having committed a number of years ago to improving the quality of its service and with a focus on the launch of its "Paris Aéroport" traveller brand, Groupe ADP is making its comeback at the Top Resa Trade Fair to promote its increasingly varied and personalised range of services.

Visitors to the Groupe ADP stand will be met with on-screen animations inviting them to discover more about the range of services on offer at the Paris airports.
