Aéroports de Paris August 2008 traffic figures

Passenger traffic figures

In August 2008, Aéroports de Paris recorded an increase of 1.6 % in passenger traffic compared to August 2007. The Paris airports handled a total of 8.4 million passengers: 6 million at Paris – Charles de Gaulle airport (+1.9%) and 2.4 million at Paris – Orly (+1%), in addition to the exceptional traffic increase recorded in August 2007 (+8%).

Traffic figures for August 2008 were marked by an increase on international routes, the Group's most profitable segment.

Domestic traffic stood at -0.6%. European traffic decreased by 0.3% with a slight decrease on routes to the Schengen area (-0.3%) and -4.4% for routes to Great-Britain and Ireland.

Traffic on the other international routes rose by 5.6%, fuelled by an increase in traffic to North and South America (+10%). The African market grew by 3.7%. A 2.7% increase was recorded on routes to and from Asia and the Middle East.

For the first eight months of 2008, passenger traffic grew by 2.2%. Aéroports de Paris expects its annual passenger traffic to grow by approximately 2% in 2008 and confirms that its expected growth in revenue and EBITDA should be substantially superior to traffic growth, with an EBITDA increase of between +9% and +12%.
