MARKS & SPENCER FRANCE OPENS FIRST AIRPORT FOOD STORE
IN PARTNERSHIP WITH PARIS AÉROPORT AND LAGARDERE TRAVEL RETAIL FRANCE

Paris Aéroport, Marks & Spencer and Lagardère Travel Retail France are delighted to announce that travellers can now find their favourite M&S products at Charles de Gaulle airport thanks to the opening of a new Marks & Spencer Food store.

Located in the arrivals hall of Terminal 2E, the new 140 m² store is the first of the four Marks & Spencer Food stores operated by its franchise partner Lagardère Travel Retail France to open at Paris Charles de Gaulle airport by the end of 2018. This store will complement the 15 existing M&S stores in Paris.

"When it comes to Food, our travellers need points of reference, renowned international brands whose product quality and service are well known. The opening of this first Marks & Spencer Food store illustrates the dynamic nature of airport retail - 2015 saw the opening of 39 stores – either new stores or the remodelling of existing stores," said Augustin de Romanet, President and CEO of Groupe ADP.

Marks & Spencer Food is renowned for leading the way in quality and innovation. As a food specialist, Marks & Spencer is also committed to using the very best quality and responsibly sourced ingredients in all of its exclusive food products. For example all hydrogenated fats and artificial colours have been removed.

At the new store, travellers will be able to discover a world of the finest global flavours including:

- Fresh sandwiches, and prepared salads and fruit, all ready to eat.

- British favourites including Scottish smoked salmon, Cheddar cheese, shortbread, scones and crumpets.
- M&S's popular chilled prepared meals inspired by world cuisines – such as Indian, Chinese and Italian.
- Biscuits, confectionery and savoury snacks for everyday eating, special occasions and gifting.
- A selection of beers, award winning wines and spirits as Scottish whisky.

M&S's popular in-store bakery providing breads baked on-site every day, as well as a choice of pastries, shortbreads, scones, pies and cookies.

Jill Bruce, International Head of Food at Marks & Spencer, said: "As the busiest airport in mainland Europe, Paris-Charles de Gaulle is the perfect location for our first opening in an airport in France. Our range of sandwiches, salads and fresh fruit, all ready to eat, is ideal for travellers. We are excited to welcome customers to the new store and introduce them to a new world of Food. We are delighted to expand our French Food store portfolio in partnership with Lagardère Travel Retail France."

The opening of the first Marks & Spencer Food store in a French airport confirms the ambition of Lagardère Travel Retail France to offer services and shops that perfectly meet all a traveller's needs and allow them to make the most of their travel time. Michel Perol, CEO of Lagardère Travel Retail France stated; "Marks & Spencer is the perfect fit for an international airport such as Paris-Charles de Gaulle. Its unique offer of high quality products is a very attractive proposition for travellers."
